Bibliophile this year celebrates its 30th birthday. For many years, we have been asked on many occasions to compile a book of our pithy and cheeky quotes.

The quotes have always been a trademark of our literary style - upmarket, highbrow and discerning, the selection of these quotes, like the books, still follows my late mentor, Bill Smith's, criteria.

Our customers often tell us they clip out and collect them. We use our huge library of reference books and collate the best quotes into our categories for every catalogue - something we have lovingly done since 1978!

Here is our choice of the very best from the past 30 years.

* Denotes Top Pick. Enjoy!

Annie and the Team (plus Cats!)

1980s THE FOUNDING FATHERS

Since 1978 Bibliophile has been selling bargain books.

The very name "Bibliophile" was dreamed up by an Australian journalist Max Harris with former owner Bill Smith. Bill was editor of the trade publication "Books and Bookmen", a librarian and owner of a chain of bargain bookshops eponymously named 'Booksmith'.

A doyen of the book trade, he was the first to open his shops until 9pm and leave wire baskets by the door to indulge his bookloving customers.

Bill Smith

His first Editor, Lucia, introduced the first Cats to the editorial "... and the Team (plus Cats)".

HUMOUR

Laugh at yourself first, before anyone else can.

Elsa Maxwell

HEALTH

*

Obesity is really widespread.

Joseph O'Kearn II

LITERATURE

A diary is all penned-up emotion.

Honey Greer

MUSIC & DANCE

He who cannot dance puts the blame on the floor.

Hindu Proverb

There is only one religion, though there are a hundred versions of it.

George Bernard Shaw

TRAVEL

France has neither winter nor summer nor morals.

Mark Twain

WORDS

Bachelor: A man who never makes the same mistake once.

Ed Wynn

HISTORY

In history, there seems to be only a negative learning. One notes what one has done to others in order to hold it against them.

Elias Canetti

ENTERTAINMENT

I don't think Europeans make better films - they can't even keep their johns clean.

Peter Fonda

TRUE CRIME

Don't call a man honest just because he never had the chance to steal.

Yiddish saying

FOOD & DRINK

To make authentic chili con carne, a piece of dark chocolate should be added to the meat mixture.

And Not Many People Know This

by Michael Caine

BIOGRAPHY

He is so narrow-minded that if he fell on a pin, it would blind him in both eyes.

Fred Allen

COLLECTABLES

If in his study he hath so much care
To hang all old strange things, let his wife beware!

John Donne

ART & ARCHITECTURE

The moment you cheat for the sake of beauty, you know you are an artist.

Max Jacob

FICTION

The novelist, afraid his ideas may be foolish, slyly puts them in the mouth of some other fool and reserves the right to disavow them.

Diane Johnson

GREAT BRITAIN

If you want to eat well in England, eat three breakfasts.

W. Somerset Maugham

NATURE

What has 16 legs, 14 testicles and two tiny breasts? Answer: Snow
White and the seven dwarves.

Anon.

SPORT

What's worse than an octopus with tennis elbow? Answer: A centipede with athlete's foot.

From The Big Book of Jokes and Riddles

MISCELLANY

Closet queen: Victoria rearranges her wardrobe again and her clothes are not amused.

David Mackler

MODERN HISTORY

Once there were two brothers; one ran away to sea, the other was elected Vice-President - and nothing was ever heard of them again.

Thomas Marshall

WAR & MILITARIA

War may make a fool of man, but it by no means degrades him; on the contrary, it tends to exalt him, and its net effects are much like those of motherhood on women.

H.L. Mencken

HOBBIES & HANDICRAFTS

A hobby a day keeps the doldrums away.

Phyllis McGinley

BABY BIBLIOPHILE

Ah, the patter of little feet around the house. There's nothing like having a midget for a butler.

W.C. Fields

OCCULT

What song the Syrens sang, or what name Achilles assumed when he hid himself among women, though puzzling questions, are not beyond all conjecture.

Sir Thomas Browne

TRANSPORT

There was a young fellow of Ceuta Who rode into Church on his scooter;

He knocked down the Dean

And said: "Sorry, old bean,

I oughta have sounded my hooter."

ART & ARCHITECTURE

Aw, give me a good cathedral any day of the week, Gothic, mate, something to amaze the eye. To me this is just a big rockery in need of gardening.

Australian visitor's view of Stonehenge, June 1993

BABY BIBLIOPHILE

Boys and girls come out to play,
The moon doth shine as bright as day.

William King (1708)

BIOGRAPHY

Memoirs: when you put down the good things you ought to have done, and leave out the bad ones you did do - that's memoirs.

Will Rogers

CRIME

Public benevolence can never be a substitute for private virtue; it is more important, and more difficult, to check one outburst of temper, however trivial, than to engage in any number of public demonstrations against collective brutality and injustice.

Malcolm Muggeridge

ENTERTAINMENT

Nobody ever tells you if you are no good on television. They just say they didn't see it.

Matthew Paris

EROTICA

Say what you like about the Ten Commandments, you must always come back to the pleasant fact that there are only ten of them.

H.L. Mencken

FICTION

His book hit the world with all the impact of a feather falling on to a piece of damp blotting-paper.

Patrick Moore

FOOD & DRINK

A poor man who eats too much, as contradistinguished from a gourmand, who is a rich man who "lives well."

Elbert Hubbard

GREAT BRITAIN

The poetry of earth is never dead;
When all the birds are faint with the hot sun,
And hid in cooling trees, a voice will run

From hedge to hedge about the new-mown mead.

Keats

HEALTH *

If you're feeling low, don't despair, the sun has a sinking spell every night, but it comes back up every morning.

Anon

HISTORY

Men wiser and more learned than I have discerned in history a plot, a rhythm, a predetermined pattern.

These harmonies are concealed from me. I can see only one emergency following on another.

H.A.L. Fisher

HOBBIES & HANDICRAFTS

The best mind-altering drug is truth.

Lily Tomlin

HUMOUR

Blessed are the cracked, for they shall let in the light!

T.V discussion show Kilroy on eccentrics

LITERATURE

We all write poems. It is simply that poets are the ones that write in words.

John Fowler "French Lieutenant's Woman"

MODERN HISTORY

You cannot expect to sit down at a negotiating table while keeping a 1,000lb bomb in a van outside...

Dick Spring on involving Sinn Fein in the political process

MUSIC AND DANCE

It is better to do something in bad taste than to be monotonous.

Pablo Casals

NATURE

Men of the future - perhaps very soon - can live as fishes!

Jacques Cousteau

OCCULT

If the creator were conscious of himself he would not need conscious creatures.

Jung

RELIGION & PHILOSOPHY

Psychiatry's chief contribution to philosophy is the discovery that the toilet is the seat of the soul.

Alexander Chase

SCIENCE

When I find myself in the company of scientists, I feel like a shabby curate who has strayed by mistake into a drawing-room full of dukes.

W.H. Auden

SPORT

The question "Who ought to be boss?" is like asking "Who ought to be the tenor in the quartet?"

Obviously, the man who can sing tenor.

Henry Ford

TRANSPORT

We're about to enter the age of flight before we've even developed a chair that a man can sit on comfortably.

Philip Wylie (B.1902)

TRAVEL & ADVENTURE

Don't squat when waiting for a bus or a person. Don't spit in public.

Don't point at people with your fingers. Don't make noise. Don't laugh loudly. Don't yell or call to people from a distance. Don't pick your teeth, pick your nose, blow your nose, pick at your ears, rub your eyes or rub dirt off your skin. Don't scratch, take off your shoes, burp, stretch or hum. When walking, keep your steps light. If you are in an emergency, you may quicken your pace, but do not run wildly.

From a Chinese government list of tips to travellers abroad

WAR & MILITARIA

Tell the truth, and so puzzle and confound your adversaries.
Henry Wotton (1568-1639)

WORDS

People resent articulacy, as if articulacy were a form of vice.
Frederic Raphael

Catalogue 121 May 1989RELIGION AND PHILOSOPHY

Most sailors are religious: daily peril makes them so.

from Leo Rosten's Treasury of Jewish Quotations

"Did you find yourself reminiscing a great deal in your autobiography?"
Gloria Hunniford

OCCULT

The belief in a supernatural source of evil is not necessary; men alone are quite capable of every wickedness.
Joseph Conrad

GREAT BRITAIN

I did a picture in England one winter and it was so cold I almost got married.
Shelley Winters

FOOD AND DRINK *

Don't eat too many almonds; they add weight to the breasts.
Colette

LITERATURE

In 1969 I published a small book on humility. It was a pioneering work which has not, to my knowledge, been superseded.
Lord Longford

EROTICA

It takes a lot of experience for a girl to kiss like a beginner.
Anonymous

SCIENCE *

Modern science is still unable to produce a better tranquilizer than a few kind words.
Reader's Digest

FICTION

It was a book to kill time for those who like it better dead.
Rose Macaulay

HISTORY

... take it all in all, gentlemen have made the best historians.
Hilaire Belloc

TRAVEL AND PLACES

Travel is atavistic, the day will come when there will be no more traffic at all and only newly-weds will travel.
Max Frisch

WAR AND MILITARIA

War is like love, it always finds a way.
Bertolt Brecht

WORDS

We must use words as they are used or stand aside from life.
Ivy Compton-Burnett

COLLECTIBLES

Certainly it is more reasonable to devote one's life to women than to postage-stamps or old snuffboxes, even to pictures or statues. Only the example of other collectors should be a warning to us to make changes, to have not one woman only but several.

Marcel Proust

ART & ARCHITECTURE

Some day, in this England that has so often borne beauty, her genius will again move, in the unexpected ways of insight. Man will re-create the arts, or die.
John Masefield.

MODERN HISTORY

History generally, and the history of revolutions in particular, is always richer in content, more varied, more many-sided, more lively and more "subtle" than even the best parties and the most class-conscious vanguards of the most advanced classes imagine.
Vladimir I. Lenin

NATURE

I think that I am violating no confidence when I say that Nature holds many mysteries which we humans have not fathomed as yet. Some of them may not even be worth fathoming.
Robert Benchley

HUMOUR

They [humourists] lead, as a matter of fact, an existence of jumpiness and apprehension. They sit on the edge of the chair of literature. In the house of Life they have the feeling that they have never taken off their overcoats.
James Thurber

HEALTH

Aunt Sadie ... so much disliked hearing about her health that people often took her for a Christian Scientist, which, indeed she might have become had she not disliked hearing about religion even more.
Nancy Mitford

MUSIC & DANCE

The plain fact is that music “per se” means nothing; it is sheer sound, and the interpreter can do no more with it than his own capacities, mental and spiritual, will allow, and the same applies to the listener.

Sir Thomas Beecham

ENTERTAINMENT

You know, I go to the theatre to be entertained ... I don't want to see plays about rape, sodomy and drug addiction ... I can get all that at home.

Peter Cook

CRIME

I came to the conclusion many years ago that almost all crime is due to the repressed desire for aesthetic expression.

Evelyn Waugh

TRANSPORT

The automobile did not put the adventures of travel within reach of the common man. Instead, it first gave him the opportunity to make himself more and more common.

John Ketas

MISCELLANY

I never was much on this Book reading, for it takes 'em too long to describe the colour of the eyes of all the characters.

Will Rogers

HOBBIES & HANDICRAFTS

Never try to out-stubborn a cat.
Robert Heinlein ('Time Enough for Love')

Catalogue 122 June 1989

WAR

Sleep after toil, port after stormy seas, ease after war, death after life does greatly please.

Edmund Spenser

OCCULT

The sea never changes and its works, for all the talk of men, are wrapped in mystery.

Joseph Conrad

BABY BIBLIOPHILE

Tweedledum and Tweedledee agreed to have a battle; for Tweedledum said Tweedledee had spoiled his nice new rattle.

Lewis Carroll

FOOD AND DRINK

Watermelon - it's a good fruit. You eat, you drink, you wash your face.

Enrico Caruso

RELIGION & PHILOSOPHY

Time is God's way of keeping things from happening all at once.

Anonymous Texan Graffiti

GREAT BRITAIN

To make a union with Great Britain would be fusion with a corpse.
(On Churchill's proposal for Anglo-French union, 1940.)

Marshal Pétain

HISTORY

History must not be written with bias, and both sides must be given, even if there is only one side.

John Betjeman

SCIENCE

Science, at bottom, is really anti-intellectual. It always distrusts pure reason, and demands the production of objective fact.

H.L. Mencken

MODERN HISTORY

History is too serious to be left to historians.

Iain MacLeod

EROTICA *

Prostitution gives her an opportunity to meet people. It provides fresh air and wholesome exercise, and it keeps her out of trouble. - Joseph Heller.

LITERATURE

Literature is the art of writing something that will be read twice; journalism what will be grasped at once.

Cyril Connolly

MUSIC

Concerts in England have no future; I have no future; nobody has any future.

Sir Thomas Beecham

BIOGRAPHY

Biography, like big-game hunting, is one of the recognised forms of sport, and it is as unfair as only sport can be.

Philip Guedalla

FICTION

Casting my mind's eye over the whole of fiction, the only absolutely original creation I can think of is

Don Quixote.

W. Somerset Maugham

TRANSPORT

The study of railway stations is something like the study of churches. It can be turned into archaeological detection work.

John Betjeman ('Flower of Cities: A Book of London', 1949)

HEALTH

We are all ill: but even a universal sickness implies an idea of health.

Lionel Trilling ('The Liberal Imagination')

ART & ARCHITECTURE

If you want to know what is actually occurring inside, underneath, at the centre, at any given moment, art is a truer guide than 'politics', more often than not.
Percy Wyndham Lewis ('Time and Western Man')

SPORT

Personally, I have always looked on cricket as organised loafing.
William Temple, Archbishop of Canterbury

HUMOUR

Pastiche is always rash, but what I find worse is when people think it's easy to copy my verses!
Ogden Nash

Oscar Wilde
When no more a child
Would entertain with epigrams
The captive occupants of adjacent prams.

HOBBIES & HANDICRAFTS

Always exaggerate the importance of important things and overlook their deficiencies.
Hugh Stevenson Tigner

ENTERTAINMENT *

Those in the cheaper seats clap. The rest of you rattle your jewellery.
John Lennon at the Royal Variety Performance 1963

CRIME

Justice is what we get when the decision is in our favour.
John W. Raper

TRAVEL & PLACES

I've had it with these dopey little countries and all their pokey borders. You can't swing a cat without sending it through customs. Everything's too small. The cars are too small. The elevators are the size of broom closets. Even the languages are itty-bitty. Sometimes you need two or three just to get you through till lunch.
P.J. O'Rourke on Europe (from 'Holidays in Hell')

NATURE

I have always plucked a thistle and planted a flower where I thought a flower would grow.
Abraham Lincoln

Catalogue 123 July 1989MUSIC & DANCE

Luciano Pavarotti
Tends to drive his neighbours dotti.
Their taste for Pagliacci
Could only be described as pacci,
And for Boheme - more or less the seme.

LITERATURE

The author of "Persuasion"
On a social occasion,
Would remark each behavioural quirk
For subsequent use in a forthcoming work.

BABY BIBLIOPHILE *

Child! Do not throw this book about!
Refrain from the unholy pleasure
Of cutting all the pictures out!
Hilaire Belloc

COLLECTIBLES *

It is only when you have grandchildren that you realise that all the best books in the library are in the children's section.
Helen Exley

SPORT

Personally, I have always looked on cricket as organised loafing.
William Temple, Archbishop of Canterbury (remark to parents when Headmaster of Repton School.)

HISTORY

No arts; no letters; no society; and which is worst of all, continual fear and danger of violent death; and the life of man solitary, poor, nasty, brutish and short.
Thomas Hobbes (1588-1679)

TRANSPORT

Restore human legs as a means of travel; pedestrians rely on food for fuel and need no special parking facilities.
Lewis Mumford

WORDS

Some sentences release their poison only after years.
Elias Canetti

BIOGRAPHY

My wife has a whim of iron.
Oliver Hereford

CRIME

Open your wallet and repeat after me: 'Help yourself'!
Heard on BBC

EROTICA *

Sex seems to me one of the few permanently and everlasting amusing subjects that exist.
Aldous Huxley

Last night the New York Philharmonic played Brahms.
Brahms lost.
Dorothy Parker

GREAT BRITAIN

England has civilisation but no culture.
Robin Mathews

ENTERTAINMENT

She was deaf and her memory for lines was not good. Yet she never minded when I prompted her during a take. I think she was remembering silent films, when the director would talk and film her at the same time.
Lindsay Anderson, who directed Lillian Gish in her last film

TRAVEL & PLACES

A Dutch tourist was helped by police in Wiltshire after getting lost and driving 500 miles around the West Country in search of a caravan site in Dorset where he had left his wife.
Newspaper report

HEALTH

He who has health has hope, and he who has hope has everything.
Arabian Proverb

NATURE

The Queen said, "One's corgi,
Is a well behaved dorgi,
But on has to admit that he snarls
At Charls!"

LITERATURE

The poet Shelley (Percy Bysshe)
Was heard to voice a pious wysse.
That Fate would now place some restriction

Upon his wife's propensity for writing science fiction.

FOOD & DRINK

I have not been afraid of excess:
excess on occasion is exhilarating. It prevents moderation from acquiring the deadening effect of a habit.

W. Somerset Maugham

FICTION

Fiction is like a spider's web, attached ever so slightly perhaps, but still attached to life at all four corners.

Virginia Woolf

SCIENCE

While bright-eyed Science watches round.

Thomas Gray

OCCULT

He must have a long spoon, that must eat with the Devil.

Geoffrey Chaucer

HOBBIES & HANDICRAFTS

When I am grown to man's estate
I shall be very proud and great,
And tell the other girls and boys
Not to meddle with my toys.

Robert Louis Stevenson

WAR & MILITARIA

To be prepared for war is one of the most effectual means of preserving peace.

George Washington

The writers against religion, whilst they oppose every system, are wisely careful never to set up any of their own.

Edmund Burke

HUMOUR

Life is a jest, and all things show it:
I thought so once, but now I know it.

John Gay

MISCELLANY

Some books are to be tasted, others to be swallowed, and some few to be chewed and digested.

Francis Bacon

ART & ARCHITECTURE

The great artist is the simplifier.

HEALTH

A rule of thumb in the matter of medical advice is to take everything any doctor says with a grain of aspirin.

Goodman Ace

ENTERTAINMENT *

I don't like appearing with a bare-breasted woman on screen because no one is looking at me.

Michael Caine

TRAVEL & PLACES

Travel makes a wise man better, but a fool worse.

Thomas Fuller

NATURE *

When a plant is clicking, it is saying it wants water and when it goes quiet it is essentially saying it has enough.

Professor Malcolm Wilkins, botanist

LITERATURE

Little presses write to me for manuscripts and when I write back that I haven't any, they write to ask if they can print the letter saying I haven't any.

John Steinbeck

FOOD & DRINK

He was a bold man who first swallowed a strawberry.

James VI of Scotland

SPORT

I remember being upset once and telling my dad I wasn't following through right, and he replied
"Nancy, it doesn't make any difference to a ball what you do after you hit it.

Nancy Lopez

FICTION

The writer is the child of parents of contrasting and even conflicting temperaments and points of view, and in consequence is unable to accept anything on authority but has to try and think out everything for himself.

Margaret Stansgate

SCIENCE

Nature and Nature's laws lay hid in night:
 God said, "Let Newton be!" and all was light.
 Alexander Pope (Epitaph for Sir Isaac Newton)

OCCULT

For my part, I have ever believed, and do now know, that there are witches.
 Sir Thomas Browne

WAR & MILITARIA

My voice is still for war.
 Joseph Addison

RELIGION

There's naught, no doubt, so much the spirit calms
 As rum and true religion.
 Lord Byron

HUMOUR

Full well they laugh'd, with counterfeited glee,
 At all his jokes, for many a joke had he.
 Oliver Goldsmith

BIOGRAPHY

Modesty: the gentle art of enhancing your charm by pretending not to be aware of it.
 Oliver Hereford

CRIME

Wickedness is a myth invented by good people to account for the curious attractiveness of others.
 Oscar Wilde

WORDS *

It is not the function of a comma to help a wheezing sentence get its health back.
 Keith Waterhouse

TRANSPORT *

Airline travel is hours of boredom interrupted by moments of stark terror.

Our England is a garden that is full of stately views,
 Of borders, beds and shrubberies and lawns and avenues,
 With statues on the terraces and peacocks strutting by;
 But the Glory of the Garden lies in more than meets the eye.
 Kipling

HISTORY

For undemocratic reasons and for motives not of state,
 They arrive at their conclusions - largely inarticulate.
 Being void of self-expression they confide their views to none;

But sometimes in a smoking room, one learns why things were done.
 Kipling

BABY BIBLIOPHILE

The Grizzly Bear is huge and wild;
 He has devoured the infant child.
 The infant child is not aware
 He has been eaten by the bear.

* TRANSATLANTIC BOOKMAN

Bibliophile was joined by Fred Bass, owner of the 80 year old Strand Bookstore on Broadway, New York (following the death of founder Max Harris).

* UNDER NEW OWNERSHIP

Before the death of boss Bill Smith in 1992, he had arranged for his editor Annie Quigley to buy the business from his widow and from Mr Bass. Fred and Annie still buy books together at all the major book fairs - and have cheekily been called “herons” for the way they swoop on an unsuspecting supplier and Hoover up all their books!

* WEBSITE LAUNCH 1999

At the turn of the Millennium Bibliophile went digital and developed a new website to list all titles and to prove you can sometimes judge a book not just by an excellent review, but also by its cover!

GREAT BRITAIN

Oh, London is a fine town,
A very famous city,
Where all the streets are paved with gold,
And all the maidens pretty.
- George Colman The Younger

HANDICRAFTS

In the creative state a man is taken out of himself. He lets down as it were a bucket into his subconscious, and draws up something which is normally beyond his reach. He mixes this thing with his normal experiences and out of the mixture he makes a work of art.
- E. M. Forster

HEALTH

Health is the thing that makes you feel that now is the best time of the year.

I do not paint a portrait to look like the subject, rather does the person grow to look like his portrait.

- Salvador Dalí

CHILDREN'S

Where children are, there is the golden age.

- Novalis

COLLECTABLES

There is certainly no absolute standard of beauty. That precisely is what makes its pursuit so interesting.

- Galbraith

CRIME AND THRILLERS

Fear succeeds crime – it is its punishment.

- Voltaire

EARLY LEARNING

The true university of these days is a collection of books.

- Thomas Carlyle

An actor is a sculptor who carves in the snow.

- Edwin Booth

EROTICA

I am at the age where food has taken the place of sex in my life. In fact, I've just had a mirror put over the kitchen table.

- Rodney Dangerfield

FICTION

I am always at a loss to know how much to believe of my own stories.

- Washington Irving

Dinner at the Huntercombes' possessed only two dramatic features – the wine was a farce and the food a tragedy.

- Anthony Powell

GREAT BRITAIN

An Englishman, Being flattered, is a lamb; threatened, a lion.

- George Chapman

HEALTH

My only solution for the problem of habitual accidents...is to stay in bed all day. Even then, there is always the chance that you will fall out.

- Robert Benchley

HISTORICAL BIOGRAPHY

After I am dead, I would rather have men ask why Cato has no monument than why he had one.

- Cato the Elder

HISTORY

History...is, indeed, little more than the register of the crimes, follies and misfortunes of mankind.

- Edward Gibbon

HOBBIES

To be able to fill leisure intelligently is the last product of civilization, and at present very few people have reached this level.

- Bertrand Russell

HOW TO...

For success, attitude is equally as important as ability.

- Harry F. Banks

HUMOUR

Laughter is the sensation of feeling good all over, and showing it principally in one spot.

- Josh Billings

LITERATURE

The best fame is a writer's fame: it's enough to get you a table at a good restaurant, but not enough to get you interrupted when you eat.

- Fran Lebowitz

MODERN BIOGRAPHY

Each had his past shut in him like the leaves of a book known to him by heart; and his friends could only read the title.

- Virginia Woolf

MODERN HISTORY

I didn't come into politics to change the Labour Party. I came into politics to change the country.

- Tony Blair

MUSIC AND DANCE

Music alone with sudden charms can bind The wand'ring sense, and calm the troubled mind.

- William Congreve

MYTHOLOGY

There is an ancient legend which warns that, should we ever learn our true origin, our universe will instantly be destroyed.

- Len Wein

NATURE

Art is man's nature; nature is God's art.

- Philip James Bailey

NEW AGE AND OCCULT

How does one kill fear, I wonder?

How do you shoot a spectre through the heart, slash off its spectral head, take it by the spectral throat?

- Joseph Conrad

PETS

I have never married because I have three pets at home that answer the same purpose as a husband. I have a dog that growls every morning, a parrot that swears all afternoon, and a cat that comes home late at night.

- Marie Corelli

PSYCHOLOGY AND SOCIOLOGY

The interpretation of dreams is the royal road to a knowledge of the unconscious activities of the mind.

- Sigmund Freud

ART AND ARCHITECTURE

Architecture, of all the arts, is the one which acts the most slowly, but the most surely, on the soul.
- Ernest Dimnet

BUSINESS AND COMPUTERS

A business has to be involving, it has to be fun, and it has to exercise your creative instincts.
- Richard Branson

CHILDREN’S

It should be noted that children at play are not playing about; their games should be seen as their most serious-minded activity.
- Michel de Montaigne

COLLECTABLES

Beauty is everlasting, and dust is for a time.
- Marianne Moore

CRIME AND THRILLERS

It is a capital mistake to theorise before you have all the evidence. It biases the judgement.
- Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

EARLY LEARNING

One of the advantages of being disorderly is that one is constantly making exciting discoveries.
- A. A. Milne

ENTERTAINMENT

You need three things in the theatre
– the play, the actors and the audience, and each must give something.
- Kenneth Haigh

I’m all for bringing back the birch, but only between consenting adults.
- Gore Vidal

FICTION

Imagination is the eye of the soul.
- Joseph Joubert

FOOD AND DRINK

It was my Uncle George who discovered that alcohol was a food well in advance of medical thought.
- P. G. Wodehouse

GARDENING

Our England is a garden, and such gardens are not made By singing: ‘Oh how beautiful!’ and sitting in the shade, While better men than we go out and start their working lives

At grubbing weeds from gravel paths with broken dinner-knives.
- Rudyard Kipling

GREAT BRITAIN

By seeing London, I have seen as much of life as the world can show.
- Dr Samuel Johnson

HANDICRAFTS

Imagination is more important than knowledge.
- Albert Einstein

HEALTH

The human body experiences a powerful gravitational pull in the direction of hope. That is why the patient’s hopes are the physician’s secret weapon. They are the hidden ingredients in any prescription.
- Norman Cousins

HISTORICAL BIOGRAPHY

Never let the future disturb you.
You will meet it, if you have to,
with the same weapons of reason which today arm you against the present.
- Marcus Aurelius

Knowledge is of no value unless you put it into practice.
- Anton Chekhov

HOW TO...

Success is the ability to go from failure to failure without losing your enthusiasm.
- Winston Churchill

HUMOUR

Wit is like caviar. It should be served in small, elegant portions and not splashed about like marmalade.
- Noël Coward

LITERATURE

Being published by the Oxford University Press is rather like being married to a duchess: the honour is almost greater than the pleasure.

- G. M. Young

MODERN BIOGRAPHY

My body has certainly wandered a good deal, but I have an uneasy suspicion that my mind has not wandered enough.

- Noël Coward

Human blunders usually do more to shape history than human wickedness.

ENTERTAINMENT

Evil people...you never forget them. And that's the aim of any actress – never be forgotten.
- Bette Davis

EROTICA

Sex ought to be a wholly satisfying link between two affectionate people from which they emerge unanxious, rewarded, and ready for more.
- Alex Comfort

FICTION

All fiction is for me a kind of magic and trickery – a confidence trick, trying to make people believe something is true that isn't.
- Sir Angus Wilson

FOOD AND DRINK

The proper union of gin and vermouth is a great and sudden glory; it is one of the happiest marriages on earth, and one of the shortest lived.
- Bernard de Voto

GARDENING

There is no manner of doubt that a town surrounded by water is a very fine sight; but a town surrounded by land is much finer. Can there be any comparison in point of beauty, between the dull monotony of a watery surface, and the delightful variety of gardens, meadows, hills and woods?
- John Moore

GREAT BRITAIN

Mr Weller's knowledge of London was extensive and peculiar.
- Charles Dickens, Pickwick Papers

From a very early age, I had imbibed the opinion, that it was every man's duty to do all that lay in his power to leave his country as good as he had found it.
- William Cobbett

HISTORY

Like most of those who study history, he (Napoleon III) learned from the mistakes of the past how to make new ones.
- A. J. P Taylor

HOBBIES

The most important thing about photographing people is not clicking the shutter... it is clicking with the subject.
- Alfred Eisenstaedt

HOW TO...

Most of the important things in the world have been accomplished by people who have kept on trying when there seemed to be no help at all.
- Dale Carnegie

HUMOUR

Laughter is much more important than applause. Applause is almost a duty. Laughter is a reward. Laughter means they trust and like you.
- Carol Elaine Channing

LITERATURE

Books are the ever burning lanterns of accumulated wisdom.
- Jonathan Swift

MODERN BIOGRAPHY

Life is a gamble at terrible odds – if it was a bet, you wouldn't take it.
- Tom Stoppard

MODERN HISTORY

History gets thicker and thicker as it approaches recent times.
- A. J. P. Taylor

MUSIC AND DANCE

Without music, life would be a mistake.
- Friedrich Wilhelm Nietzsche

MYTHOLOGY

From the first place of liquid darkness, within the second place of air and light, I set down the following record with its mixture of fact and truths and memories of truths and its direction always toward the Third Place, where the starting point is myth.
- Janet Paterson Frame

NATURE

Nature cannot be ordered about, except by obeying her.
- Francis Bacon

NEW AGE AND OCCULT

Thus I hurl my dazzling spells into the spongy air.
- John Milton

PETS

The more one gets to know of men, the more one values dogs (L'Esprit des bêtes)
- A. Toussenel

PSYCHOLOGY AND SOCIOLOGY

Madness need not be all breakdown. It may also be breakthrough.
- R. D. Laing

RELIGION AND PHILOSOPHY

Ye that do truly and earnestly repent you of your sins, and are in love and charity with your neighbours, and intend to lead a new life.
- Book of Common Prayer

SCIENCE

A million stars decide the place,
Of any single star in space,
And though they draw it divers ways, The star in steady orbit stays.
- Ronald Campbell Macfie

SCIENCE FICTION

A touch of science, even bogus science, gives an edge to the superstitious tale.
- Sir V. S. Pritchett

SCOTTISH INTEREST

If thou would'st view fair Melrose aright, Go visit it by the pale moonlight.
- Sir Walter Scott

SPORT

Cricket is the greatest game that the wit of man has yet devised.
- Sir Pelham Plum Warner

TRANSPORT

An artist who has travelled on a steam train, driven an automobile, or flown in an airplane doesn't feel the same way about form and space as one who has not.
- Stuart Davis

TRAVEL AND PLACES

I am, I flatter myself, completely a citizen of the world. In my travels through Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Corsica, France,
I never felt myself from home.
- James Boswell.

WAR AND MILITARIA

What if someone gave a war and nobody came? Life would ring the bells of ecstasy and forever be itself again.
- Allen Ginsberg

WAR MEMOIRS

In war: resolution. In defeat: defiance. In victory: magnanimity.
In peace: goodwill.
- Sir Winston Churchill

WORDS

Every quotation contributes something to the stability or enlargement of the language.
- Samuel Johnson

Catalogue 238 February 2006ART AND ARCHITECTURE

All architecture is great architecture after sunset; perhaps architecture is really a nocturnal art, like the art of fireworks.
- G. K. Chesterton, 1909

CHILDREN'S

Childhood is an adventure both for children and for their parents.
- Lawrence Kutner, 1991

COLLECTABLES

What we buy, and pay for, is part of ourselves.
- Amelia Barr, 1913

CRIME AND THRILLERS

The most difficult crime to track is the one which is purposeless.
- Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, 1892

EARLY LEARNING

If you neglect to study when you are young, what of your old age?
- Chinese proverb

ENTERTAINMENT

The art of acting consists in keeping people from coughing.
- Sir Ralph Richardson, 1947

EROTICA

Erotica is simply high-class pornography; better produced... designed for a better class of consumer.
- Andrea Dworkin, 1981

FICTION

Fiction is to the grown man what play is to the child.
- R. L. Stevenson, 1882

FOOD AND DRINK

Health foods make promises that only the Second Coming could fulfil.
- Mason Cooley, 1990

GARDENING

Look at it, it was once a wilderness, now it's a garden. Aren't you proud?
- Willis Goldbeck, 1962

GREAT BRITAIN

You're allowed to be boring in Britain... abroad, people expect one to be entertaining.
- John Hurt, 1981

HANDICRAFTS

Needlework, knitted caps, baskets, all worthy, all well done,
But less than the honeycombs.
- Philip Larkin

HEALTH

The body never lies.
- Martha Graham, 1979

HISTORICAL BIOGRAPHY

Read no history; nothing but biography, for that is life without theory.
- Benjamin Disraeli, 1832

HISTORY

History: a distillation of rumour.
- Thomas Carlyle, 1837

HOBBIES

Hobbies are apt to run away with us, you know; it doesn't do to be run away with. We must keep the reins.
- George Eliot, 1872

HOW TO...

To do common things perfectly is far better worth our endeavour than to do uncommon things respectably.
- Harriet Beecher Stowe, 1864

HUMOUR

Humour does not rescue us from unhappiness, but enables us to move back from it a little.
- Mason Cooley, 1990

LITERATURE

The greatest masterpiece in literature is only a dictionary out of order.
- Jean Cocteau, 1919

MODERN BIOGRAPHY

I am being frank about myself in this book. I tell of my first mistake on page 850.
- Henry Kissinger, 1983

MODERN HISTORY

History is more or less bunk... the only history that is worth a tinker's damn is the history we make today.
- Henry Ford, 1916

MUSIC AND DANCE

There are two golden rules for an orchestra: start together and finish together. The public doesn't give a damn what goes on in between.
- Sir Thomas Beecham, 1978

MYTHOLOGY

The great enemy of the truth is very often not the lie, deliberate, contrived and dishonest - but the myth - persistent, persuasive and unrealistic.
- John F. Kennedy, 1962

NATURE

God and nature do nothing in vain.
- Aristotle

NEW AGE AND OCCULT

The New Age? It's just the old age stuck in a microwave for fifteen seconds.
- James Randi, 1991

PETS

A dog teaches a boy fidelity, perseverance, and to turn round three times before lying down - very important traits in times like these.

- Robert Benchley, 1949

PSYCHOLOGY AND SOCIOLOGY

In my day, for 5 marks Freud himself would treat you. For 10 marks he would treat you and press your pants.
- Woody Allen, 1972

RELIGION AND PHILOSOPHY

I can tell you that God is alive because I talked to him this morning.
- Billy Graham, 1966

SCIENCE

That is the essence of science: ask an impertinent question and you are on the way to a pertinent answer.
- Jacob Bronowski, 1975

SCIENCE FICTION

Science fiction has become a dialect for our time.
- Doris Lessing, 1988

SCOTTISH INTEREST

Beautiful, glorious Scotland, has spoilt me for every other country!
- Mary Lincoln, 1969

SPORT

I don't think I can be expected to take seriously any game which takes less than three days to reach its conclusion.
- Tom Stoppard, 1984

TRANSPORT

Ever notice how these European trains always smell of eau de cologne and hard boiled eggs?
- Billy Wilder, 1940

TRAVEL AND PLACES

Holidays are an expensive trial of strength. The only satisfaction comes from survival.
- Jonathan Miller, 1962

WAR AND MILITARIA

Frankly, I'd like to see the government get out of war altogether and leave the whole field to private industry.
- Joseph Heller, 1955

WAR MEMOIRS

I am convinced that the best service a retired general can perform is to turn in his tongue along with his suit, and to mothball his opinions.
- Omar Bradley, 1959

WORDS

Words should be an intense pleasure just as leather should be to a shoemaker.
- Evelyn Waugh, 1950

Catalogue 239 March 2006ART AND ARCHITECTURE

In my experience, if you have to keep the lavatory door shut by extending your left leg, it's modern architecture.
- Nancy Banks-Smith, 1979

BUSINESS AND COMPUTERS

One computer manufacturer was so successful they had to move to smaller premises.
- Anon

CHILDREN'S

And tell the other girls and boys, Not to meddle with my toys.
- R. L. Stevenson, 1881

COLLECTABLES

Ever since I was a little girl, I've dreamed of havin' my own things about me.
- F. Nugent, 1952

CRIME AND THRILLERS

Crime is terribly revealing. Your soul is revealed by your actions.
- Agatha Christie, 1936

EARLY LEARNING

All occupations are lowly; only book-learning is exalted.
- Chinese proverb

The movie actor, like the scared king of primitive tribes, is a God in captivity.
- Alexander Chase, 1966

EROTICA

The Kama Sutra is the Mrs. Beeton of sex.
- Aldous Huxley, 1973

FOOD AND DRINK

A woman should never be seen eating or drinking, unless it be lobster salad and Champagne, the only true feminine and becoming viands.
- Lord Byron, 1812

GARDENING

I just come and talk to the plants, really - very important to talk to them. They respond, I find.
- Prince Charles, 1986

GREAT BRITAIN

Courtesy is not dead — it has merely taken refuge in Great Britain.
- Georges Duhamel, 1953

HANDICRAFTS

Let a human being throw the energies of his soul into the making of something.
- Walter Lippmann, 1914

HEALTH

It is disease that makes health pleasant.
- Heraclitus

HISTORICAL BIOGRAPHY

Many heroes lived before Agamemnon; but all are unknown and unwept because they have no spirited chronicler.
- Horace

HISTORY

What has history to do with me? Mine is the first and only world.
- Ludwig Wittgenstein, 1915

HOBBIES

A hobby is, of course, an abomination, as are all consuming interests that do not lead directly to large, personal gain.
- Fran Lebowitz, 1978

HOW TO...

Some things are best left alone. Such as interfering in things which are beyond our powers.
- Jimmy Sangster, 1958

HUMOUR

I should prefer to die laughing, and on more than one occasion, thought I might.
- Joseph Epstein, 1979

LITERATURE

[Bookselling] is, like prostitution, a trade in which the amateurs think that they are better than the professionals.
- Roger Page, 1970

MODERN BIOGRAPHY

Biography should be written by an acute enemy.
- A. J. Balfour, 1927

MODERN HISTORY

Who controls the past controls the future; who controls the present controls the past.
George Orwell, 1949

MUSIC AND DANCE

Bad music always sounds pleasant, but good music makes you gnash your teeth.
- Pierre Boulez, 1969

MYTHOLOGY

Freudian psychoanalytical theory is a mythology that answers pretty well to Levi-Strauss's description.
- Peter Medawar, 1972

NATURE

But nature is no sentimentalist... does not cosset or pamper us.
- Ralph Emerson, 1860

NEW AGE AND OCCULT

The appropriation of radical thinking by lazy, self-obsessed hippies is a public relations disaster that could cost the earth.
- Ben Elton, 1989

PETS

Adam's first domestic pet after the expulsion from Paradise was the serpent.
- Franz Kafka, 1917

PSYCHOLOGY AND * SOCIOLOGY

Psychiatry enables us to correct our faults by confessing our parents' shortcomings.
- Laurence Peter, 1977

RELIGION AND PHILOSOPHY

The good news is that Jesus is coming back. The bad news is that he's really pissed off!
- Bob Hope, 1973

SCIENCE

Don't talk to me about mathematics - I've come to the conclusion that I've learnt to live without it.
- Prince Philip, 1966

SCIENCE FICTION

What the hell is nostalgia doing in science fiction... If there's a message there, I don't think I want to hear it.
- Ursula Le Guin, 1978

SCOTTISH INTEREST

My heart's in the Highlands, my heart is not here.
- Robert Burns, 1790

SPORT

Playing snooker gives you firm hands and helps to build up character. It is the ideal recreation for dedicated nuns.

ART AND ARCHITECTURE

I rarely draw what I see – I draw what I feel in my body.

- Barbara Hepworth

CHILDREN'S

Never have more children than you have car windows.

- Erma Bombeck

COLLECTABLES

Antiquities are history defaced, or some remnants of history which have casually escaped the shipwreck of time.

- Francis Bacon

CRIME AND THRILLERS

How many crimes are committed merely because their authors could not endure being wrong!

- Albert Camus

* PLUS THE CATS!

The Cats have been our Editor's helpers for many years. They receive their own fan mail, even food and feathers to play with on occasion!

Below is Tiglet reading the paper!

Nobby (left) also appears on the website. She has now retired to Kent. The original cats were called Ming and Ting, two adorable black kittens introduced by Bill to the CAT-ologue in 1978.

EARLY LEARNING

Don't wait for schools to be built. Teach the children under the nearest tree.

- Sultan of Oman

Television - a medium. So called because it is neither rare nor well done.

- Ernie Kovacs, 1973

EROTICA

Erotic practices have become diversified. Sex used to be a single-crop farming, like cotton or wheat; now people raise all kinds of things.

- Saul Bellow

FICTION

The good ended happily, and the bad ended happily. That is what fiction means.

- Oscar Wilde

FOOD AND DRINK

Lie soft, sleep hard, drink wine, and eat good cheer.

- Thomas Middleton

GARDENING

Gardening... one of the most underrated aspects of diplomacy.

- George P. Shultz

GREAT BRITAIN

Kent, sir – everyone knows Kent – apples, cherries, hops and women.

- Charles Dickens

HANDICRAFTS

Art is like Creation: it holds good on the last day as on the first.

- Paul Klee

HEALTH

Health and an able body are two jewels.

-John Fletcher

HISTORICAL BIOGRAPHY

Man has but three events in his life: to be born, to live, and to die. He is not conscious of his birth, he suffers at his death and he forgets to live.

- Jean de la Bruyere

HISTORY

History a distillation of rumour.
- Thomas Carlyle

HOBBIES

Now the end, I take it, is all one, to live at more leisure and at one's ease.

- Michael Eyquem de Montaigne

HOW TO...

Do not despise my opinion, when I remind you that it should not be hard for you to stop sometimes and look into the stains on the wall, or ashes of a fire, or clouds, or mud or like places, in which, if you consider them well, you may find really marvellous ideas.

- Leonardo da Vinci

HUMOUR

There's a hell of a distance between wisecracking and wit. Wit has truth in it; wisecracking is simply callisthenics with words.

- Dorothy Parker

LITERATURE

The answers you get from literature depend upon the questions you pose.

- Margaret Atwood

MODERN BIOGRAPHY

I learned...that one can never go back, that one should not ever try to go back – that the essence of life is going forward. Life is really a one-way street.

- Agatha Christie

MODERN HISTORY

The only duty we owe to history is to rewrite it.

-Oscar Wilde

MUSIC AND DANCE

Just as my fingers on these keys make music, so the selfsame sounds on my spirit make a music, too. Music is feeling then, not sound.

- Laurence Sterne

MYTHOLOGY

We are cursed, Waldo, born cursed from the time our mothers bring us into the world till the shrouds are put on us.

- Olive Schreiner

NATURE

Midwinter Spring is its own season Sempiternal though sodden towards sundown, Suspended in time, between pole and tropic.

- George Eliot

NEW AGE AND OCCULT

The devil!... what beastly things our memories insist on cherishing!

- E. G. O'Neill

PETS

But was there ever a dog that praised his fleas?

- W. B. Yeats.

The eye sees only what the mind is prepared to comprehend.

- Robertson Davies

RELIGION AND PHILOSOPHY

We have just enough religion to make us hate, but not enough to make us love one another.

- Jonathan Swift, Thoughts on Various Subjects

SCIENCE

If the world should blow itself up, the last audible voice would be that of an expert saying it can't be done.

- Peter Ustinov

SCIENCE FICTION *

After one look at this planet any visitor from outer space would say

'I WANT TO SEE THE MANAGER.'

- William Burroughs

SCOTTISH INTEREST

He that is without name, without friends, without coin, without country, is still at least a man; and he that has all these is no more.

- Sir Walter Scott, Rob Roy

TRANSPORT

We declare: the genius of our days to be: trousers, jackets, shoes, tramways, buses, aeroplanes, railways, magnificent ships – what an enchantment – what a great epoch unrivalled in world history.

- Mikhail Larionov

TRAVEL AND PLACES

Of all the pleasures in the world, travel is (in my opinion) the sweetest and most delightful.

- Thomas Coryate

WAR AND MILITARIA

War settles nothing...to win a war is as disastrous as to lose one.

- Dame Agatha Christie

WAR MEMOIRS

Whoever lights the torch of fear in Europe can wish for nothing but chaos.

- Adolf Hitler

WORDS

I trade both the living and the dead, for the enrichment of our native language.

- John Dryden

Catalogue 241 May 2006

ART AND ARCHITECTURE

Geometry is to sculpture what grammar is to the art of the writer.

- Guillaume Apollinaire

BUSINESS AND COMPUTERS

I've got just as much conscience as any man in business can afford to keep, - just a little, you know, to swear by, as 't were.

- Harriet Stowe, Uncle Tom's Cabin.

CHILDREN'S

Political history is far too criminal and pathological to be a fit subject for the young. Children should acquire their heroes and villains from fiction.
- W. H. Auden

COLLECTABLES

Only when you are moved by a painting should you buy it. Being moved is what collecting is all about.
- Walter H. Annenberg

CRIME AND THRILLERS

We do not easily suspect evil of those whom we love most.
- Peter Abelard

EARLY LEARNING

A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops.
- Henry Brooks Adams

ENTERTAINMENT

For the theatre one needs long arms; it is better to have them too long than too short. An artiste with short arms can never, never make a fine gesture.
- Sarah Bernhardt

EROTICA

Once sex rears its ugly 'ead it's time to steer clear.
- Margery Louise Allingham

FICTION

Perfection irritates as well as it attracts, in fiction as in life.
- Louis Stanton Auchincloss

FOOD AND DRINK

The fine wine leaves you with something pleasant; the ordinary wine just leaves.
- Maynard Andrew Amerine

GARDENING

spring when the world is puddle wonderful.
- e e cummings

GREAT BRITAIN

What do you think about England, this country of ours where nobody is well?
- W. H. Auden

HANDICRAFTS

Most people won't realize that writing is a craft. You have to take your apprenticeship in it like anything else.
- Katherine Anne Porter

HEALTH

We met...Dr. Hall in such very deep mourning that either his mother, his wife, or himself must be dead.
- Jane Austen

HISTORICAL BIOGRAPHY

I expect to pass through this world but once. Any good thing, therefore, that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any fellow-creature, let me do it now...for I shall not pass this way again.
- Stephen Grellet

HISTORY

Even the walls, the only sharers of secrets, were feared.
- Marcellinus Ammianus

HOBBIES

Our ideas must be as broad as Nature if they are to interpret nature.
- Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

HUMOUR

The rewards for being sane may not be very many but knowing what's funny is one of them.
- Sir Kingsley Amis

LITERATURE

The poet's business is not to describe things to us, or to tell us about things, but to create in our minds the very things themselves.
- Lascelles Abercrombie

MODERN BIOGRAPHY

Never play cards with a man called Doc. Never eat at a place called Mom's. And never, ever, no matter what else you do in your whole life, never sleep with anyone whose troubles are worse than your own.
- Nelson Algren

MODERN HISTORY

'I can't believe it! What will history say?' 'History, sir, will tell lies as usual.'
- George Bernard Shaw

MUSIC AND DANCE

Musicians don't retire; they stop when there's no more music in them.
- Louis Armstrong

MYTHOLOGY

O to be a dragon, a symbol of the power of Heaven – of silkworm size or immense; at times invisible. Felicitous phenomenon!
- Marianne Criag Moore

NATURE

Art pales when compared to the workings of nature.
- St. Thomas Aquinas

NEW AGE AND OCCULT

He had a fear of the dead, and of all inanimate things, rising up around him to claim him; it is the fear of the pre-eminently solitary child and solitary man.
- Peter Ackroyd of Charles Dickens

PETS

I've already had medical attention – a dog licked me when I was on the ground.
- Neil (Marvin) Simon

PSYCHOLOGY AND SOCIOLOGY

A man's mind will very generally refuse to make itself up until it be driven and compelled by emergency.
- Anthony Trollope

RELIGION AND PHILOSOPHY

The true meaning of religion is thus not simply morality, but morality touched with emotion.

- Matthew Arnold

SCIENCE

Science creates the future without knowing what the future will be. If scientists knew tomorrow's discovery they would make it.

- Baron Zuckerman

SCIENCE FICTION *

'The first ten million years were the worst,' said Marvin, 'and the second ten million years, they were the worst too. The third ten million I didn't enjoy it all. After that I went into a bit of a decline.' – Marvin, the paranoid android.

- Douglas Noël Adams

SCOTTISH INTEREST

O flower of Scotland, when will we see your like again,

That fought and died for your wee bit hill and glen

And stood against him, proud Edward's army,

And sent him homeward tae think again.

- Roy Williamson

SPORT

Most games are skin-deep, but cricket goes to the bone.

- John Arlott

TRANSPORT

I turned to Aunt Agatha, whose demeanour was now rather like that of one who, picking daisies on the railway, has just caught the down express in the small of the back.

- Sir P. G. Wodehouse

The Inimitable Jeeves

TRAVEL AND PLACES

As the Spanish proverb says, 'He who would bring home the wealth of the Indies, must carry the wealth of the Indies with him.' So it is in travelling; a man must carry knowledge with him, if he would bring home knowledge.

- Samuel Johnson

WAR AND MILITARIA *

Napoleon thinks that I am a fool, but he who laughs last laughs longest.

- Alexander I

WAR MEMOIRS

Anyone who has ever looked into the glazed eyes of a soldier dying on the battlefield will think hard before starting a war.

- Otto Edward Leopold, Prince of Bismarck

WORDS

Give 'em words; Pour oil into their ears, and send them hence.

- Ben Jonson

Catalogue 242 June 2006

ART AND ARCHITECTURE

There are only two styles of portrait painting; the serious and the smirk.

- Charles Dickens, Nicholas Nickleby

BUSINESS AND COMPUTERS

Any sufficiently advanced technology is indistinguishable from magic.

- Arthur C. Clarke

CHILDREN'S

Children have neither past nor future. They live in the present, something which rarely happens to us.

- Jean de La Bruyère

COLLECTABLES

Don't ever wear artistic jewelry; it wrecks a woman's reputation.

- Colette

CRIME AND THRILLERS

But if he does really think there is no distinction between virtue and vice, why, Sir, when he leaves our houses, let us count our spoons.

- Samuel Johnson

EARLY LEARNING

Upon the education of the people of this country the fate of this country depends.

- Benjamin Disraeli

ENTERTAINMENT

The trouble with Freud is that he never had to play the old Glasgow Empire on a Saturday night after Rangers and Celtic had both lost.

- Ken Dodd

EROTICA *

She had the kind of body that could melt a cheese sandwich from across the room.

- David Zucker, The Naked Gun

FICTION

Good fiction is made of that which is real, and reality is difficult to come by.

- Ralph Ellison

FOOD AND DRINK

One can be unhappy before eating caviar, even after, but at least not during.

- Sir Alexander Korda

GARDENING

Spring has returned. The earth is like a child that knows poems.

- Rainer Maria Rilke

GREAT BRITAIN

The history of England is emphatically the history of progress.

- Thomas Babington Macaulay

HANDICRAFTS

Creativeness often consists in turning up what is already there. Did you know that left and right shoes were thought up only a little more than a century ago?

- Bernice Fitz-Gibbon

HEALTH

Sir, My pa requests me to write to you, the doctors considering is doubtful whether he will ever recuver the use if his legs which prevents his holding a pen.

- Charles Dickens, Nicholas Nickleby

HISTORICAL BIOGRAPHY

It matters not how a man dies, but how he lives. The act of dying is not of importance, it lasts so short a time.

- Samuel Johnson

HISTORY

For books are more than books, they are the life The very heart and core of ages past, The reason why men lived and worked and died, The essence and quintessence of their lives.

- Amy Lowell

HOBBIES

Chess is the gymnasium of the mind.

- Vladimir Ilyich Lenin

HUMOUR

I distrust camels and anyone else who can go a week without a drink.

- Joe E. Lewis

LITERATURE

The only end of writing is to enable the readers better to enjoy life, or better to endure it.

- Samuel Johnson

MODERN BIOGRAPHY

One should not exaggerate the importance of trifles. Life, for instance, is much too short to be taken seriously.

- Nicolas Bentley

MODERN HISTORY

There are many wrongs in the world, but none that could be righted by the terrorist's program.

- George Jonas

MUSIC AND DANCE

I thought I was hot stuff when the gals argued over me...I was too interested in my music to pay attention to that sort of jive. To most of it anyway.

- Louis Armstrong

MYTHOLOGY

At the centre of every myth is another: that of the people who created it.

- Nuruddin Farah

NATURE

The study of nature is interwoven with the highest mind. You should never trifle with nature.

- Jean Louis Rodolphe Agassiz

NEW AGE AND OCCULT

It is no good casting out devils. They belong to us, we must accept them and be at peace with them.

- D. H. Lawrence

PETS *

I have noticed what cats most appreciate in a human being is not the ability to produce food which they take for granted but his or her entertainment value.

- Geoffrey Household

PSYCHOLOGY AND SOCIOLOGY

Show me a sane man and I will cure him for you.

- Carl Gustav Jung

RELIGION AND PHILOSOPHY

Religion resides in our eyes rather than our minds.

We see, then we love.

- Alun Lewis

SCIENCE

The scientific mind does not so much provide the right answers as ask the right questions.

- Claude Lévi-Strauss

SCIENCE FICTION

Science fiction writers foresee the inevitable, and although problems and catastrophes may be inevitable, solutions are not.

- Isaac Asimov

SPORT *

We're all endowed with certain God-given talents. Mine happens to be punching people in the head.

- Sugar Ray Leonard

TRANSPORT

I have seen the science I worshipped and the aircraft I loved, destroying the civilization I expected them to serve.

- Charles A. Lindbergh

TRAVEL AND PLACES

Human beings are more alike than unalike, and what is true anywhere is true everywhere, yet I encourage travel to as many destinations as possible for the sake of education as well as pleasure.

- Maya Angelou

WAR AND MILITARIA

It is well that war is so terrible. We should grow too fond of it.

- Robert E. Lee

WAR MEMOIRS

I now close my military career and fade away, an old soldier who tried to do his duty as God gave him the light to see that duty.

- Douglas MacArthur

WORDS

Words are, of course, the most powerful drug used by mankind.

- Rudyard Kipling

Technology feeds on itself.
Technology makes more technology possible.
- Alvin Toffler

COLLECTABLES

Beauty alone makes the world happy, and every being forgets its limitations as long as it experiences her enchantment.
- Friedrich von Schiller

CRIME AND THRILLERS

Depend upon it, Sir, when a man knows he is to be hanged in a fortnight, it concentrates his mind wonderfully.
- Samuel Johnson

EARLY LEARNING

All men naturally desire knowledge.
- Aristotle

ENTERTAINMENT

There was scattered laughter in the rear of the theatre, leading to the belief that somebody was telling jokes back there.
- George S. Kaufman, play review

EROTICA

Marriage has many pains, but celibacy has no pleasures.
- Samuel Johnson

FICTION

A tale should be judicious, clear, succinct; The language plain, and incidents well link'd; Tell not as new what ev'ry body knows; And, new or old, still hasten to a close.
- William Cowper

FOOD AND DRINK

You are offered a piece of bread and butter that feels like a damp handkerchief and sometimes, when cucumber is added to it, like a wet one.

- Compton Mackenzie

GARDENING

Nothing grows in our garden, only washing. And babies.

- Dylan Thomas

GREAT BRITAIN

The British, he thought, must be gluttons for satire: even the weather forecast seemed to be some kind of spoof, predicting every possible combination of weather for the next twenty-four hours without actually committing itself to anything specific.

- David John Lodge

HANDICRAFTS

I have to learn the simplest things last.

- Charles Olson

HEALTH

All health is better than wealth.

- Sir Walter Scott

- Samuel Johnson

HOW TO...

Everyone has talent. What is rare is the courage to follow the talent to the dark place where it leads.

- Erica Jong

HUMOUR *

Sunburn is very becoming – but only when it is even – one must be careful not to look like a mixed grill.

- Noel Coward

LITERATURE

When a book and a head collide and a hollow sound is heard, must it always have come from the book?

- Georg Christoph Lichtenberg

MODERN BIOGRAPHY

Other people's lives may easily be human documents. But a man's own life is always a melodrama.

- G. K. Chesterton

MODERN HISTORY

Any woman who understands the problems of running a home will be nearer to understanding the problems of running a country.

- Margaret Thatcher

MUSIC AND DANCE *

I went home in a state of hysterical happiness. I was a singer in a jazz band.

- George Melly

MYTHOLOGY

One is tempted to say that old myths never die; they just become embedded in the textbooks.

- Thomas A. Bailey

NATURE *

Summer afternoon – summer afternoon; to me those have always been the two most beautiful words in the English language.

- Henry James

NEW AGE AND OCCULT

Neither the sun nor death can be looked at with a steady eye.

- Françoise La Rochefoucauld

PETS

Cats are autocrats of naked self-interest. They are both amoral and immoral, consciously breaking rules... the cat may be the only animal who savors the perverse or reflects upon it.

- Camille Paglia

PSYCHOLOGY AND SOCIOLOGY

Psychoanalysis is confession without absolution.
- G. K. Chesterton

RELIGION AND PHILOSOPHY

He prayeth best, who loveth best
All things both great and small;
For the dear God who levethe us,
He made and loveth all.
- Samuel Taylor Coleridge

SCIENCE

Science has promised us truth – an understanding of such relationships as our minds can grasp; it has never promised us either peace or happiness.
- Gustave Le Bon

SCIENCE FICTION

The only way of finding the limits of the possible is by going beyond them into the impossible.
- Arthur C. Clarke

SCOTTISH INTEREST

To be yersel's – and to mak' that worth bein'. Nae harder job to mortals has been gi'en.
- Hugh MacDiarmid

SPORT

Golf is in the interest of good health and good manners. It promotes self-restraint and affords a chance to play the man and act like a gentleman.
- William Howard Taft

TRANSPORT

When a train pulls into a great city I am reminded of the closing moments of an overture.
- Graham Greene

TRAVEL AND PLACES

Ever since childhood, when I lived within earshot of the Boston and Maine, I have seldom heard a train go by and not wished I was on it.
- Paul Theroux

WAR AND MILITARIA

Brave men are a city's strongest tower of defence.
- Alcaeus

WAR MEMOIRS

In war, indeed, there can be no substitute for victory.
- Douglas MacArthur

WORDS

All books are either dreams or swords, You can cut, or you can drug, with words.
- Amy Lowell

Catalogue 244 September 2006

ART AND ARCHITECTURE

Love and delight are better teachers of the Art of Painting than compulsion is.
- Albrecht Dürer

BUSINESS AND COMPUTERS

Programming used to be thought of as a sort of arcane matter. Now it's become the province of children who are superb at it.
- Clive Sinclair

COLLECTABLES

Nothing that costs only a dollar is worth having.
- Elizabeth Arden

CRIME AND THRILLERS

Heaven takes care that no man secures happiness by crime.
- Vittorio Alfieri

EARLY LEARNING

He who adds not to his learning diminishes it.
- Talmud

ENTERTAINMENT

I think your whole life shows in your face and you should be proud of that.
- Lauren Bacall

EROTICA

If God had meant us to have group sex, I guess he'd have given us all more organs.
- Malcolm Bradbury

FICTION

Yes – oh dear, yes – the novel tells a story.
- E. M. Forster

FOOD AND DRINK

'Did you ever taste beer?'. 'I had a sip of it once' said the small servant. 'Here's a state of things!' cried Mr Swiveller, raising his eyes to the ceiling. 'She never tasted it – it can't be tasted in a sip!'
- Charles Dickens, The Old Curiosity Shop

GARDENING

No man but feels more of a man in the world if he have a bit of ground that he can call his own. However small it is on the surface, it is four thousand miles deep; and that is a very handsome property.
- Charles Dudley Warner

GREAT BRITAIN

Sir, he lived in London, and hung loose upon society.
- Dr Samuel Johnson

HANDICRAFTS

Originality is the essence of true scholarship. Creativity is the soul of the true scholar.
- Nnamdi Azikiwe

HEALTH *

Why, Madam, do you know there are upward of thirty yards of bowels squeezed underneath that girdle of your daughter's? Go home and cut it; let Nature have fair play, and you will have no need of my advice.

- John Abernethy

HISTORICAL BIOGRAPHY

I have more memories than if I were a thousand years old.

- Charles Baudelaire

HISTORY

There can be no history without the gift of knowing what to leave out.

- Jacques Barzun

HOBBIES

Photography can never grow up if it imitates some other medium. It has to walk alone; it has to be itself.

- Berenice Abbott

HOW TO...

There is no such thing as a great talent without great willpower.

- Honoré de Balzac

HUMOUR *

Of course we had it tough. We used to have to get out of our shoebox at 12 o'clock at night, and lick road clean with your tongue.

- Monty Python's Flying Circus

LITERATURE

Let other pens dwell on guilt and misery. I quit such odious subjects as soon as I can.

- Jane Austen

MODERN BIOGRAPHY

Life is rather like a tin of sardines – we're all of us looking for the key.

- Alan Bennett

MODERN HISTORY

It's not perfect, but to me on balance Right Now is a lot better than the Good Old Days.

- Maeve Binchy

MUSIC AND DANCE *

I hit the piano with my elbow sometimes because of a certain sound I want to hear. You can't hit that many notes with your hands.

- Thelonious Monk

MYTHOLOGY

There is a superstition in avoiding superstition.

- Francis Bacon

NATURE

What dreadful hot weather we have! It keeps me in a continual state of inelegance.

- Jane Austen

NEW AGE AND OCCULT

I do not believe that any man fears to be dead, but only the stroke of death.

- Francis Bacon

PETS

No one who has ever had a dog or cat can doubt the animal capacity for happiness... Like uninhibited human happiness, the pleasure is contagious, and pets serve as a conduit to joyful feelings.

- Jeffrey Masson

PSYCHOLOGY AND SOCIOLOGY

If we keep an open mind, too much is likely to fall into it.

- Natalie Clifford Barney

RELIGION AND PHILOSOPHY

It were better to have no opinion of God at all, than such an opinion as is unworthy of him.

- Francis Bacon

SCIENCE

There are no such things as incurable, there are only things for which man has not found a cure.

- Bernard Mannes Baruch

SCIENCE FICTION *

He's spending a year dead for tax reasons.

- Douglas Adams, The Restaurant at the End of the Universe

SCOTTISH INTEREST

Come, let me know what it is that makes a Scotchman happy!

- Samuel Johnson, ordering himself a glass of whisky

SPORT

Hail Cricket! glorious, manly, British game! First of all Sports! Be first alike in fame!

- James Love

TRANSPORT

AUTOMOBILE, n. A four-wheeled vehicle that runs up hills and down pedestrians.

- Ambrose Bierce, The Devil's Dictionary

TRAVEL & PLACES

When it comes to flying, I am a nervous passenger but a confident drinker and Valium-swallower.

- Martin Amis

WAR AND MILITARIA

It takes twenty years or more of peace to make a man, it takes only twenty seconds of war to destroy him.

- Baudouin I, King of the Belgians

WAR MEMOIRS

There are not fifty ways of fighting, there's only one, and that's to win. Neither revolution nor war consists in doing what one pleases.

- André Malraux

WORDS

The most important single thing in publishing is the English sentence, and the editor who cannot contemplate it again and again with a sense of wonder has not yet gained respect for the complexity of learning.

- William Jovanovich

Catalogue 245 October 2006

ART AND ARCHITECTURE

Artistic temperament... sometimes seems a battleground for a dark angel of destruction and a bright angel of creativity wrestling.

- Madeleine L'Engle

BUSINESS AND COMPUTERS

In these days of computer viruses, asking if you may put your disk into someone's computer is the technological equivalent of unsafe sex.

- Ruth Dudley Edwards

CHILDREN'S

"What is the use of a book", thought Alice, "without pictures or conversations?"

- Lewis Carroll

COLLECTABLES

There is no excellent beauty that hath not some strangeness in the proportion.

- Francis Bacon

CRIME AND THRILLERS

You know my method. It is founded upon the observance of trifles.

- Arthur Conan Doyle

Boscombe Valley Mystery

EARLY LEARNING

But there was one Elephant – a new Elephant – an Elephant's Child – who was full of 'satiabile curiosity', and that means he asked ever so many questions.

- Rudyard Kipling, Just So Stories

ENTERTAINMENT *

"Goodness, what beautiful diamonds!" "Goodness had nothing to do with it, dearie."

- Mae West, Night After Night

EROTICA

One lover is always more moved than the other.

- Saul Bellow

FICTION

There are many reasons why novelists write, but they all have one thing in common – a need to create an alternative world.

- John Fowles

FOOD AND DRINK

Food is our common ground, a universal experience.

- James Beard

GARDENING

Who loves a garden loves a greenhouse too.

- William Cowper

GREAT BRITAIN

Be England what she will, With all her faults, she is my country still.

- Charles Churchill

HANDICRAFTS

It is not bright colours but good drawing that makes figures beautiful.
- Titian

HEALTH

“Ye can call it influenza if ye like,” said Mrs Machin. “There was no influenza in my young days. We called a cold a cold.”
- Arnold Bennett, The Card

HISTORICAL BIOGRAPHY

If a man does not make a new acquaintance as he advances through life, he will soon find himself left alone. A man, Sir, should keep his friendship in constant repair.
- Samuel Johnson

HISTORY

History itself is virtually indefinable, its scope unlimited, its depth unfathomable.
- Earl R. Beck

HOBBIES

Life is a short day; but it is a working day. Activity may lead to evil, but inactivity cannot lead to good.
- Hannah More

HOW TO... *

For me, there is only one criterion for a good photograph: that it be unforgettable.
- Brassai

HUMOUR

The marvellous thing about a joke with a double meaning is that it can only mean one thing.
- Ronnie Barker

LITERATURE

Too many people in the modern world view poetry as a luxury, not a necessity like petrol. But to me it's the oil of life.
- John Betjeman

MODERN BIOGRAPHY

Nevertheless – you know, in life, you get moments – just occasionally which you can positively identify as being among the happy moments.
- Alan Ayckbourn

MODERN HISTORY *

The public are usually more sensible than the politicians or the press.
- Kenneth Clarke

MUSIC AND DANCE

Dance has to look like the music. If you see music simply as an accompaniment, then you don't hear it. I occupy myself with how not to interfere with the music.
- George Balanchine

MYTHOLOGY

For my part, I have ever believed, and do now know, that there are witches.
- Thomas Browne

NATURE

Nature can do more than physicians.
- Oliver Cromwell

NEW AGE AND OCCULT

Angels can fly because they take themselves lightly.
- G. K. Chesterton

PETS *

If a dog jumps onto your lap it is because he is fond of you; but if a cat does the same thing it is because your lap is warmer.
- A. N. Whitehead

PSYCHOLOGY AND SOCIOLOGY

It is not enough to have a good mind. The main thing is to use it well. - René Descartes

RELIGION AND PHILOSOPHY

The true meaning of religion is thus not simply morality, but morality touched by emotion.
- Matthew Arnold

SCIENCE

For the things of this world cannot be made known without a knowledge of mathematics.
- Roger Bacon

SCIENCE FICTION

Space...is big. Really big. You just won't believe how vastly hugely mind bogglingly big it is. I mean you may think it's a long way down the road to the chemist, but that's just peanuts to space.
- Douglas Adams

SCOTTISH INTEREST

The 18th century is rightly hailed as the age when Scotland became one of the most important centres of intellectual culture in the western world.
- Michael Lynch

SPORT

I tend to believe that cricket is the greatest thing that God ever created on earth...certainly greater than sex, although sex isn't too bad either.
- Harold Pinter

TRANSPORT

I feel about airplanes the way I feel about diets. It seems to me that they are wonderful things for other people to go on.
- Jean Kerr

TRAVEL AND PLACES

When you halt in the desert make an arrow from pebbles, so, if suddenly woken up, you'll grasp which way to go.
- Joseph Brodsky

WAR AND MILITARIA

We hear war called murder. It is not: it is suicide.
- Ramsay Macdonald

Catalogue 247 January 2007

ART AND ARCHITECTURE

The physician can bury his mistakes, but the architect can only advise his client to plant vines.

- Frank Lloyd Wright

BUSINESS AND COMPUTERS

A company's ability to innovate is rapidly becoming the primary source of competitive success.

- A. Christopher Bartlett

CHILDREN'S

The joys of parents are secret, and so are their griefs and fears.

- Francis Bacon, Viscount St Albans

COLLECTABLES

Most women are not so young as they are painted.

- Sir Max Beerbohm

CRIME AND THRILLERS

He who secretly meditates crime is as guilty as if he had committed the offense.

- Juvenal

ENTERTAINMENT *

The play left a taste of lukewarm parsnip juice.

- Alexander Humphreys Woollcott, play review

EROTICA

And I, Sir, I'll never have a mistress as beautiful as those in the pictures of obscene books!

- Roberto Arlt

FICTION

A woman must have money and a room of her own if she is to write literature.

- Virginia Woolf

FOOD AND DRINK

There is no more fruitful source of family discontent than a housewife's badly-cooked dinners and untidy ways.

- Isabella Beeton

GREAT BRITAIN

An English peer of the right sort can be bored nearer to the point where mortification sets in, without showing it, than anyone else in the world.

- Sir P. G. Wodehouse

HANDICRAFTS

Activity is the only reality.

- Novalis

HEALTH

It was too pathetic for the feelings of Sophia and myself – we fainted alternately on the sofa.

- Jane Austen

HISTORICAL BIOGRAPHY

To live each day as though one's last, never flustered, never apathetic, never attitudinizing – here is perfection of character.

- Marcus Aurelius Antoninus Aurelius

HISTORY

All periods of history show a strain of madness and all are chaotic.

- Jacques Barzun

HUMOUR

SEAGOON: I want you to accompany me on the safari.

BLOODNOCK: Gad sir, I'm sorry, I've never played one.

- The Goon Show

LITERATURE

I like to write when I feel spiteful; it's like having a good sneeze.

- D. H. Lawrence

MODERN BIOGRAPHY

Memories are like mulligatawny soup in a cheap restaurant. It is best not to stir them.

- P. G. Wodehouse
Bring on the Girls

MODERN HISTORY

In the modern age history emerged as something it never had been before... a man-made process, the only all comprehending process which owed its existence exclusively to the human race.

- Hannah Arendt

MUSIC AND DANCE

An agreeable harmony for the honour of God and the permissible delights of the soul.

- Johann Sebastian Bach, his definition of music

MYTHOLOGY

One shouldn't believe that the Devil only tempts men of genius.

- Charles Baudelaire

NATURE

When you destroy a blade of grass
You poison England at her roots;
Remember no man's foot can pass
Where evermore no green life shoots.

- Gordon Bottomley

NEW AGE & OCCULT

My chief desire is to let you see that there is that which is rational, that which is irrational and that which is non-rational – and to leave you weltering in that morass thereafter.

- Seamus Deane

RELIGION AND PHILOSOPHY

All colours will agree in the dark.

- Francis Bacon, Viscount St Albans, Of Unity in Religion

SCIENCE

Mathematics is the door and key to the sciences.

- Roger Bacon

SCIENCE FICTION

"Good grief," said Arthur, "is this really the interior of a flying saucer?"

- Douglas Adams

SCOTTISH INTEREST

Where the pools are bright and deep,
Where the grey trout lies asleep,
Up the river and o'er the lea,
That's the way for Billy and me.
- James Hogg

SPORT *

Golf is a game that is played on a five inch course – the distance between your ears.
- Bobby Jones

TRANSPORT

With my own hands I had done my trick at the wheel and guided a hundred tons of wood and iron through a few million tons of wind and waves.
Jack London
The Cruise of the Snark

TRAVEL AND PLACES

Exploring is delightful to look forward to and back upon, but it is not comfortable at the time, unless it be of such an easy nature as not to deserve the name.
- Samuel Butler

WAR AND MILITARIA

I've never understood this liking for war. It panders to instincts already catered for within the scope of any respectable domestic establishment.
- Alan Bennett, Forty Years On

WAR MEMOIRS

Think of it, soldiers; from the summit of these pyramids, forty centuries look down upon you.
- Napoleon I

WORDS

Into the face of the young man...had crept a look of furtive shame, the shifty, hangdog look which announces that an Englishman is about to talk French.
- Sir P. G. Wodehouse

Catalogue 248 February 2007ART AND ARCHITECTURE

Art will remain the most astonishing activity of mankind born out of struggle between wisdom and madness, between dream and reality in our mind.
- Magdalena Abakanowicz

BUSINESS AND COMPUTERS

I have acquired a deep and abiding respect for all those engaged in the difficult business of commerce.
- Kenneth Clarke

CHILDREN'S

When a teacher calls a boy by his entire name it means trouble.
- Mark Twain

COLLECTABLES *

An archaeologist is the best husband a woman can ever have; the older she gets, the more interested he is in her.
- Agatha Christie

CRIME AND THRILLERS

There had been a fellow in prison whose lawyer was later known to boast that he had got him a suspended sentence. They hanged him.
- Brendan Brehan

EARLY LEARNING

Learn to write well, or not to write at all.
- John Sheffield

ENTERTAINMENT

There is no more offensive act of theatrical rudeness than coming late to a performance.
- Maurice Zolotow

EROTICA *

I can always tell when my lover is lying, his lips move.
- Tara Schwartz

FICTION

'Tis the good reader that makes the good book.
- Ralph Waldo Emerson, Success

FOOD AND DRINK

One cannot think well, love well, sleep well, if one has not dined well.
- Virginia Woolf

GARDENING

And I will make thee beds of roses,
And a thousand fragrant posies.
- Christopher Marlowe

GREAT BRITAIN

Nobody is healthy in London, nobody can be.
- Jane Austen, Emma

HANDICRAFTS

The worst crime is to leave a man's hands empty. Men are born makers, with that primal simplicity in every maker since Adam.
This is pre-history.
- Derek Walcott

HEALTH *

His idea of first-aid stopped short at squirting soda-water.
- P. G. Wodehouse, My Man Jeeves

HISTORICAL BIOGRAPHY

My advice to those who are about to begin, in earnest, the journey of life, is to take their heart in one hand and a club in the other.
- Josh Billings

HISTORY

History, at least in its ideal state of perfection, is a compound of poetry and philosophy.
- Thomas Babington Macaulay

HOBBIES

Idling has always been my strong point. I take no credit to myself – it is a gift.
- J. K. Jerome

HOW TO...

The secret of staying young is to live honestly, eat slowly, and lie about your age.
- Lucille Ball

HUMOUR

I thought I'd begin by reading a poem by Shakespeare but then I thought 'why should I?' He never reads any of mine.
- Spike Milligan

LITERATURE

One man is as good as another until he has written a book.
- Benjamin Jowett

MODERN BIOGRAPHY

Always be nice to those younger than you, because they are the ones who will be writing about you.
- Cyril Connolly (1903-74)

MODERN HISTORY

The good things in history are usually very short in duration, but afterwards have a decisive influence over what happens over long periods of time.
- Hannah Arendt

MYTHOLOGY

If you ever met anyone with one green and one brown eye we were to cross ourselves, for that was a human child that had been taken over by the fairies. The brown eye was the sign it had been human.
- Seamus Deane

NATURE

For we cannot command Nature except by obeying her.
- Francis Bacon, Viscount St Albans

NEW AGE AND OCCULT

I wants to make your flesh creep.
- The Fat Boy, Pickwick Papers

PETS

My experiences with the dogs in my life convince me that...the dog truly loves us...beyond measure, beyond what we deserve, more indeed than we love ourselves.
- Jeffrey Masson

PSYCHOLOGY AND SOCIOLOGY

The one thing that doesn't abide by majority rule is a person's conscience.
- Harper Lee, To Kill a Mockingbird

RELIGION AND PHILOSOPHY

It is true, that a little philosophy inclineth Man's mind to atheism; but depth in philosophy bringeth men's minds about to religion.
- Francis Bacon, Viscount St Albans, Of Atheism

SCIENCE

It came by a lightning flash like knowledge from the gods.
- Edward O. Wilson, on the 1953 discovery of the DNA molecule

SCOTTISH INTEREST

Scotland, I rush before you into my future that, every minute, grows smaller and smaller.
- Norman McCaig

SPORT

They set me up as an untameable northern savage who ate broken glass and infant batsmen for breakfast.
- Fred Trueman

TRANSPORT

If there is room for only five on a bus, you will be sixth in the queue.
- Leonard Rossiter

TRAVEL AND PLACES

There is a special ambivalence to journeys in which one's own discomfort seems mitigated by an awareness of the much greater misery of the people around one.
- George Woodcock

WAR AND MILITARIA

Even in victory, there is no beauty, and he who calls it beautiful is one who delights in slaughter.
- Lao-Tzu

WAR MEMOIRS

Victory has a hundred memories but defeat has amnesia.
- W. I. Gates

WORDS

The pen is mightier than the sword – and considerably easier to write with.
- Marty Feldman
